BARTENDER'S CHOICE

- clover club fruity, sour, fresh 17
tanqueray no.10 gin, raspberry puree, lemon simple syrup, egg white Originating in the late 1800's, this pre-prohibition classic found its feet again at julie reiners brooklyn bar aptly named "clover club", and became a hit once more with delightful balance of gin, raspberry and citrus
- slimline paloma refreshing, dry, bright 17
cazadores blanco, lime, grapefruit juice grapefruit and quince botanical soda, salt rim
A classic from mexico, traditionally containing grapefruit soda, this version brings a lighter style, using fresh juice and locally produced grapefruit soda with no additional sugar, for a refreshing yet balanced experience
- japanese highball light, effervescent, subtle 17
toki whisky, soda, lemon oil spritz
A main stay of Japanese drinking culture and session-worthy, its low alcohol content and balance of flavours make it a very food friendly cocktail throughout the evening
- hot shot warming, smoky, spicy 18

Originating from the modern classic penicillin from milk & honey in new york, this "hot toddy" version brings all the spice and smokiness needed for the winter months
- caribbean paper plane bright, complex, bitter-sweet 17 plantation stiggins' pineapple rum, aperol bruxo-x mezcal, green chartreuse, maraschino liqueur, lime

The pre-prohibition classic to end all classics, the last word has been known to be one of the main reasons for the cocktail revival in the early 2000's. This version with the addition of mezcal, has been said to leave people speechless
- black manhattan nutty, intense, rich 18
knob creek 9yr bourbon, averna , black walnut bitters
A modern take on a manhattan, the use of bourbon and replacement of vermouth with averna amaro, gives this cocktail a richer mouthfeel with bittersweet, nutty finish that is perfect to imbibe at any part of the day
